All good gifts around us...

As I write, it is the middle of December and at St John's we are in the midst of receiving local schools into the church for their Carol Service and Christmas Productions.

It has been pure joy to see the little ones from Hurst Green School sing and read so beautifully and remind us how the heart of the Christmas season is about love: God's love for us and showing love to one another.

It was really uplifting and great fun to hear Holland School's modern take and twist on many traditional carols as their version of the Nativity unfolded. In particular we all loved the Twelve days of Christmas with a partridge in a pear adorned pulpit playing a kazoo and various other twists such as ten Lord Sugars leaping and six geese 'popping' out their eggs, sound effects included! At the end, we also heard a beautiful poem called 5ive by one of the teachers which you can read below.

Then the heart-warming Moor House School & College students who gave us a glimpse of Christmas customs around the world including some tips from Del Boy in Peckham market, a dance showing us what the penguins get up to in Antarctica and a reminder that, despite only 1% of the population of China being Christian, most of our Christmas decorations are made there! The whole week has been a celebration of individual and collective gifts and talents of all ages and abilities. Everyone has had something to give and share to entertain and inspire those assembled.

It's appropriate for me to still be talking about Christmas because while the Christmas decorations have been put away and forgotten for another year in most households, the church goes on celebrating Christmas much longer. We keep the crib scene on display at least until Epiphany begins on the 6th January or often until the 2nd February when we celebrate Candlemas (which marks the time the baby Jesus was presented in the Temple).

Epiphany is the day when we remember the arrival of the Magi or Kings to visit the new born King from heaven. They had travelled far and came bearing costly gifts, just as the much poorer shepherds had before them. They remind us that although the gift-giving of Christmas day has passed, the gift of God to us in Jesus is with us everyday and has endowed every single one of us with gifts and talents to use and share for the building up of one another and our community. That is certainly what every child and young person did who came into St John's over Christmas and I am grateful to them all.

So as we begin a New Year, maybe there is some hidden, long forgotten or as yet unknown gift or talent lurking in you that is just waiting to be shared! With love and prayers

Revd Anna, Vicar of St John's, Hurst Green and St George's, Crowhurst

5ive by K Martyn-Coles

And so we're nearly at the end
Buts let's pause and think before we wend
Our journeys back towards our homes
And stop and think before we go

5, a number odd and prime
Imperative through distance and time
It represents marriage and life in all water
And goodness, and health, love, grace and favour.

5 offerings from Israel to God on high
5 points on that guiding star in the sky?
10 commandments our God did hone
5 on each of 2 tablets of stone

5 Books of Law in the Testament Old
Creation to Moses, the stories unfold
Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus 3,
Followed by Numbers and Deuteronomy

The 5 wounds of Christ on the cross where he died
To save us all, he was crucified
Ingredients 5 make the Holy oil, Chrism
We rejoice at his birth, give praise, He is risen!

5 stones David picked up, all flat and round
To tumble Goliath down to the ground
5 loaves and 2 fishes were all they did bring
But he fed the 5,000 who listened to him.

5 Golden Rings, 5 senses take flight
The flowers of myrrh are 5 petals of white
The number most gracious and poignantly
5 miles from Bethlehem to Galilee.

COFFEE and a CHAT

The coffee mornings which take place fortnightly on Thursdays will be held in the York Rooms during January as St John's room is being refurbished. St John's room was originally constructed in the 1960s and is in much need of an update - we are aiming to make it a more welcoming and useable space which will be available for use by local groups.

Everyone is welcome to come along for a cup of coffee and a chance to meet others from the community and have a chat on Thursday 12 and 26 January. And if you need a lift, ring Barbara on 715636. You can access the York Rooms by following the path round to the left of the church.

Creative Community Garden Project

Creative Community Garden Project has secured £10,000 of funding from Tesco Bags of Help! Thanks to everyone for their help so far with the project. The space around Hurst Green Community Centre is already beginning to look really good with the work so many local adults, young people and children have put in over the last few months.

This funding will enable us to develop the project even more in 2017. A massive thank you goes to everyone who voted for us.

OUR CONFIRMATION by Emily Allinson

Moving to a brand new area, knowing absolutely no one, was both exciting and terrifying for us (a pair of newlyweds). We were attending a meeting in the site office of our new development, Meridian Square, when I noticed a flashy pink and green flyer looking out at me from one of the shelves. I picked up the said flyer and that was when we first discovered St John's. Having both attended Baptist churches in our youth, we decided to contact the Vicar, Anna and go along to see what it was all about.

We attended our first Sunday service back in April and found everyone to be incredibly welcoming and friendly. We were so pleased to have found such a welcoming community and to have reconnected with God.

After chatting with Anna, she asked us whether we would be interested in being confirmed (reaffirming our Christian faith under the Church of England). There would be no pressure to make a decision until the end of the course and we would use the classes to explore our faith further. Together, we decided that this was something that we would like to do and so we attended the course, along with eight others, on a series of Monday evenings.

Over the sessions, we covered God as the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, finishing with living the Christian life. The sessions were dynamic, varied and interesting; we both found ourselves once again enthralled with what being a Christian means. At the end of the course, we decided that we would go ahead and be confirmed.

The six of us who chose to be confirmed did so at Southwark Cathedral; it felt incredibly grand and special, which was only fitting for such a special day. The service was lovely and we even had a cup of tea with the Bishop beforehand, who was incredibly down to earth and personable. The cathedral itself was beautiful and it felt right to be reaffirming our faith in such a special place. We cannot thank Anna and the whole church community of St John's enough for helping us to reconnect with such an important part of our lives and would recommend St John's to anyone.

Anyone is of course welcome to explore the Christian Faith further at any of the three churches in Hurst Green. At St John's specifically we will be running another series of discussion evenings about the Christian Life and Faith after Easter. There is no commitment to be confirmed at the end, but if you feel ready to do so at that point it is always a very joyful occasion. If you are interested in being part of the next course at St John's, please contact Revd Anna on 712674 or office@stjhurstgreen.co.uk.

HURST GREEN SINGERS

The Hurst Green Singers' Christmas concert took place on 11 December and was attended by around 80 people.

Unfortunately, the Musical Director, Michael Barlow was indisposed and unable to conduct. However, Gillian Broome very kindly stepped in to conduct and Alec Crowe was the accompanist (and conducted some pieces). Everyone enjoyed the concert and we all wish Michael a speedy recovery.

If you enjoy singing and would like to join Hurst Green Singers, come along to our social evening on Tuesday 17 January at 7.30pm in St John's Church, Hurst Green. Meet the choir members, enjoy a drink and nibbles - everyone is welcome and there are no auditions. The choir will perform again in May and the programme entitled 'The Italian Experience' will include 'Messa di Gloria' (Puccini) and Italian operatic choruses.

Hurst Green Gardening Club

Life is a learning curve, and gardening is no exception. Now the garden is trying to have a rest we can look at the structural changes anew. So here are a few cautionary notes from my garden.

 If you plan for a new shed, keep it away from the boundary fence, so you have enough room to repair the shed and fence in the future, and clear the leaves behind it.

Planting a new hedge or shrub? Find out how wide it will grow and set it far enough away from the boundary or path so it can reach its full size. It may look lost to start with - just fill the gap with smaller plants or bulbs. Your children will thank you later!

Planting a new climber next to the fence? Don't put it right next to a post. When the post is rotten you will have to dig up the plant in order to repair it, and you may lose the plant as well as the post!

Shady spots under trees can get very dry - thin out the branches. You will still have enough shade for the plants that need it, but a bit more rain will reach them.

Our first meeting of the year is on Tuesday 10 January at 8pm at St Agatha's Hall, Hurst Green. The talk will be about the myth and magic of herbs. We have a full programme for 2017 with talks, visits, socials and shows. However much you know or don't know, you will be in good company and very welcome. Brian Parrott

An Oxted Miscellany - Report by Stuart Paterson

Jim Farrell, long-standing Oxted resident, gave Oxted & District History Society members a pre-Christmas treat of images of Oxted in 'An Oxted Miscellany'. Starting with a painting of a 19th Century Old Oxted, available to view on request outside the Council Chamber at the Tandridge District Council offices, he continued with photos of the railway construction workers at Oxted Station just before it opened in 1887; former shops in Station Roads East and West, some of them gleaned from company brochures and the old cinema. He also showed images of various old buses, including the open-topped ones where top deck passengers had to duck when passing under the railway bridge in Bluehouse Lane; the Hoskins Hotel, where Jim worked as a barman in the cocktail bar when he was just 18 and the old laundry behind the present Oxted Co-op where Jim's grandmother worked ironing gentlemen's celluloid collars. The History Society's next meeting is at:

8pm on Tuesday, 10 January at the United Reformed Church, Bluehouse Lane
 when David Rudling will give a lecture entitled 'From Cowrie Shells to Credit Cards: the Archaeology of Money'. More about the History Society can be found on its website, www.oxtedanddistricthistorysociety.org.uk.

Do you or someone you know need extra support during a power cut?

Although power cuts don't happen very often, when they do they can be worrying. UK Power Networks is the electricity network and it provides a 'Priority Services Register' for people who might need extra help in a power cut.

Older people, families with very young children, and people with specific medical conditions are among the many people who are eligible to register for free support.

You can find more details and register at ukpowernetworks.co.uk/prioritysupport or by calling 0800 169 9970.
