More to Sports Day than the egg and spoon!

There were Sports Days galore across local schools as the end of the summer term approached. Some were in blazing heat, others took many hours to complete but I expect most had the obligatory mums' and dads' races!

Now for me, attending my daughter's sports day brings back all sorts of tummy-churning memories of my own sports' day at school. Because I was, quite simply, rubbish. At school, I dreaded every race as I knew I would be last or nearly last. The one year, miraculously, I seemed to be doing fairly well and with a possibility of coming in second, I fell at the last hurdle. Sports Day is a day I dread vicariously (excuse the pun) through my child.

However, this year I decided I would take the plunge. For the first time I decided to attempt the mums' race. 'I had to', for my daughter. Fortunately, the organisers were kind to us. It was a modest obstacle race in relay teams. There was still a fair bit of running, which is the bit I dread, but I did it. And our team, incredibly, came in second! I was elated. All those horrible Sports Day feelings quickly evaporated. And as a vicar, for whom churchy words appear at the strangest moments, the word 'redemption' came to mind. Sports Day for me was redeemed!

We might redeem vouchers ie exchange them for something better. To redeem means to save, to rescue, to free. Jesus came to redeem the world. What went before - those difficult things we go through, the horrors of our world, even the cross of Christ - don't go away. But what follows can be better. There is a way to live life, in the wake of dark and difficult times, that can emerge and can start to heal what has gone before, if we are open to the possibility.

It begins with desire. A need, a want, to make things better. My Sports Day mums' race began with a love for my daughter. To show her there was a better way than feeling sick and anxious about things we dread. The Christian Faith teaches that God's redemption comes from God's love for all humanity and the desire or 'passion' to carry us through to a better way, a better life that heals and transforms what has gone before. But however we see these big or small moments of redemption in our lives, it begins with us. OUR desire to overcome those things that drain life and carve out a new and more positive path of goodness and love that brings life.

Do you have something which needs to be redeemed? Is there a first step you need to make? Because you won't regret it if you do.

Revd Anna Eltringham, Vicar of St John's Hurst Green and St George's Crowhurst

Twenty Years Ago

In May 1997 a group from both St John's Church and the Methodist Church formed to set up a community coffee shop in St Agatha's Hall. In 2017 a celebratory lunch was held to thank the many volunteer helpers and cooks without whom 'Aggies-on-the-Green', as it is now known, could not function.

The Coffee Shop will re-open on Wednesday 6 September at 10.30am after the summer break.

Could you be a volunteer? More are always welcome. Phone 722343 to enquire.

Cricket Match

Interested in becoming a School Governor?

We are a successful 8 form junior school at the centre of your community. Our school vision is that every child should be the best they can be and become happy, self-confident and responsible citizens.

We are looking for people who share our vision and would like to become a part of shaping our school for the future.

We would love to hear from you if you are interested.

Please contact Margaret Cox at chair@holland.surrey.sch.uk in the first instance for more information.

SONGS OF PRAISE!

Join us for a festival of favourite hymns

St John's Church
Church Way, Hurst Green
Sunday 27 August at 9.30am

A service with your choice of well loved hymns (not a communion service) and short readings. Tea and coffee available throughout. We hope that this service will be accessible and enjoyable for the elderly and infirm with their carers.

Please help us by choosing your favourite hymn and/or reading. Tell us why it is your favourite (if you want to). Pick up a slip from the table on the left just inside the church. Complete it and post in the red box.

Hurst Green Village Fair Saturday 16 September, 1pm

The theme this time is 'Musicals' and we're featuring a special joint performance by Hurst Green Singers and The Oxted Band. The clown will be there, and for pet lovers we have the pet show. The fantastic BBQ will be selling high quality burgers and teas will be available in Aggies. We hope to have up to 40 stalls showcasing local charities and organisations, as well as performances from local dance groups. The top prize in the prize draw is a meal for 4 at the Haycutter when it re-opens in October.

The fun starts at 1pm on 16 September, and best of all, admission is completely FREE.

Oxted Charity Boot Fair, Sunday 20 August

The first Oxted Charity Boot Fair was held in June 2010 and the next one will be held on Sunday 20 August, starting at 10.30am. The Oxted Boot Fair is organised by Titsey Rotary Club and it raises money for charities while, at the same time, offering residents of Oxted, Limpsfield, Hurst Green and other local communities the opportunity of having a good clear-out at home and making some cash for themselves.

Titsey Rotary Club is hoping to raise up to £4,000 from the August Oxted Boot Fair. All the profits from pitch fees (£10 for cars and £20 for vans if pre-booked/pre-paid) and parking donations (£1 per car) will be distributed to charities, mostly local ones, including Master Park itself, the venue for the Oxted Boot Fair. Master Park is NOT council-owned and its trustees need to raise over £20,000 each year for maintenance, planting, bin-emptying etc and, for the last six years, the Oxted Boot Fair has been a major contributor to the Park's funds.

Following the last boot fair, held on 4 June, Titsey Rotary Club presented £1,400 out of their profits to Master Park to help with planting replacement trees, after some of the old trees fell victim to a fungus and had to be removed.

Master Park can take up to a maximum of 250 pitches, so please book as soon as possible to avoid disappointment. If you don't want to book a pitch, pop along to Master Park on 20 August and browse the stalls - there'll be lots of great bargains to be had. Entrance is free for buyers.

To book your pitch at the Oxted Boot Fair, please visit www.titsey.org.uk

Traditional Village Flower Show

Saturday 2 September, 2-4pm, St Agatha's Hall

Produce, preserves, flower arranging and crafts as well as flowers. Including homemade teas!
 Presented by Hurst Green Gardening Club

For more information or to enter the classes see our website Hggardeningclub.blogspot.co.uk or phone 715896

Oxted & District Probus Club

Members were fascinated by the ability of Labrador Toffee at their June meeting. Toffee is a demonstration dog for Canine Partners which trains dogs to become a partner for a disabled person. With volunteers Andy and Sue Simms from the charity, Toffee was able to show how a trained dog would be able to assist a person in a wheelchair by putting clothes in and out of a washing machine, opening doors, and getting items from cupboards. Many disabled people who rely on a carer to help them get to bed at night have to end their day early as the latest time for a carer to attend is 9pm. However, with a Canine Partner, such decisions can be made by the disabled person, as the dog can help them get ready for bed and when they wake up in the morning.

Oxted & District Probus Club meets on the third Wednesday of each month (except August and December) at St Peter's Church Hall, Limpsfield High Street, RH8 0DG. The club provides an opportunity for retired business and professional men to meet together over lunch. We meet for pre-lunch drinks and chat, then have a 2 course lunch followed by a speaker. If you are interested in joining, please contact the Club Secretary:

Date for your diary – Friday 1 December 2017 Richard Durrant's Candlelit Christmas Concert with Amy Kakoura and Nick Pynn

For many music lovers across the UK - Christmas doesn't properly begin without attending one of Richard Durrant's Candlelit Christmas Concerts. Richard will be performing at St John's Church, Hurst Green on Friday 1 December.

Richard's musical choices are always a fascination. Original guitar works as well as tunes from the early music repertoire and works by Bach - all played in his uniquely expressive way with the flawless technique of a major virtuoso and the delivery of a natural storyteller.
