October 2022

When light becomes night

Driving around during these greyer and wetter days I have been struck how we can suddenly feel plunged into the night in our still leafy wooded areas such as Merle Common or Wolf's Hill.

The contrast really is stark - day seems to turn to night in a second and back again when emerging the other side.

Thank goodness for the 'cats eyes' in the middle of the road that help us stay on our side and guide us through the darkness (so long as we have our own headlights on of course). 'Cats eyes' were invented by Percy Shaw. One night, when he was driving home it was particularly dark and foggy and he feared he would veer off the road and onto the hillside. All of a sudden he noticed a stray cat on the side of the road whose eyes reflected his headlights and instantly he knew where not to go. The invention was born and refined: bright enough to guide, robust enough to withstand tyres at speed and even self-cleaning through the collection of rainwater that splashed on the reflectors when cars that drove over them depressed them into the road. Such remarkable stories of ingenuity give us all hope!

Driving through the dark woods reminded me of these words from Psalm 139:

"Where can I go from your Spirit?
Where can I flee from your presence?
If I say, "Surely the darkness will hide me and the light become night around me," even the darkness will not be dark to you;
the night will shine like the day,
for darkness is as light to you."

As autumn turns to winter we may be more conscious of the dark both within and without. We may spiritually wonder 'is there anybody out there?' Whatever we believe, the bible helps us to consider that maybe, just maybe, we're not alone. If we begin to walk the path of curiosity and faith, we may just notice that someone is there to guide us, help us and keep us on track, just like those bright 'cats eyes' on the road, that shine like stars in the night.

Hurst Green Gardening Club

Hurst Green Gardening Club

We are back. After a long absence our Village Show was for real in September. And what a show. Aggies Hall was full of flowers, fruit, veggies and plants, and to show lockdown wasn't wasted we also had jams, liqueurs and more. With 321 different classes to choose from there was something for everyone. I even picked some sloes from the hedge behind Aggies and they won a prize! It was all a bit of fun. Although it is nice to win one of the newly polished cups or a certificate for your entry.

What made the show so worthwhile was seeing so many local people coming along to see what goes on, to meet fellow gardeners...and maybe have a cup of coffee and cake.

By the time you have read this you may have also visited us on our stall at the Hurst Green Fair. Finding some plants to sell has been challenging this year.

If you want to find out more about us please come along to our next meeting on October 12th at Aggies Hall from 7pm. If you miss that date our AGM/social is on 9th November.

Oxted Bereavement Support Group

The OBSG drop-in support group began in January 2013 as a joint venture between St Catherine's Hospice (led by Bereavement Co-ordinator Annette Phillips), St Mary's, All Saints and Oxted United Reformed Church. The aims of the group are to provide an opportunity for folk who are post bereavement to meet with others to share their experiences and ways of coping, to encourage or enable bereaved people who may be finding it difficult to begin to socialise following their bereavement and to do so within a safe environment by creating a physically comfortable and emotionally safe place, to facilitate a service for those bereaved who do not require or wish to take up formal bereavement support but would benefit from an informal self-help environment, to provide access to information and be the next steppingstone on the bereavement journey for those who have completed a period of formal support.

If you or anyone you know might benefit from attending this Bereavement Support Group, you are most welcome to join. Do not be daunted to attend for the first time on your own, you will be made very welcome. You can always bring a friend. It is a great opportunity to chat, share experiences and discuss ways of coping. We always ensure strict confidentiality.

Attendance is free - refreshments are provided. Anyone is welcome.

When: We meet every other Thursday - 13th and 27th October

Time: Drop in between 1pm and 3pm

At: Oxted United Reformed Church, Bluehouse Lane, Oxted RH8 0AA

For more information please email: ctod.oxted@gmail.com or Tel: 01883 722556 (Wendy).

How we supported national mourning at St John's

As the news of the sad death of Queen Elizabeth II was shared, clergy and churchwardens at St John's swiftly started to deploy the Church of England's strand of 'Operation London Bridge' which we had filed for such a time a couple of years before. We immediately lowered the flag to half mast as per protocol and made the church welcoming with a photograph of the late Queen, flowers and a condolence book for messages. We tolled the bell for an hour from 12 noon the day after she had died, ably led by Revd Professor Mary Seller and at 11am the next day the flag was returned to full mast to signify the Proclamation of the new King then lowered again at 1pm on the Sunday, followed by further tolling of the bell as the Proclamation was completed.

Our Sunday services included prayers and reflections and we sang the National Anthem using the word 'King' for the first time which was particularly moving. Personally, I was honoured to receive a communication from the Ecclesiastical Household of the Royal Family that all Chaplains to the Queen, such as myself, would now become Chaplains to the King. When the Queen was lying-in-State at Westminster Hall it was a privilege to join chaplains of many faiths to support those waiting in the very long queue to pay their respects. It has been a very moving time for us all and I hope some have found St John's a place of comfort and peace. Canon Anna Eltringham KHC, Rector of the Oxted Team of Churches including St John's, Hurst Green
