March 2024

LENTEN THOUGHTS

Lent means 'spring', but we usually associate this period with contemplation and penitential preparation for baptism into new life, by way of self-denial during the annual journey of remembrance towards the passion and death of Christ on the cross. It begins with the time Jesus spent fasting in the wilderness, the 40 days between Ash Wednesday and Easter Day (not including Sundays, which were not fast days, so actually 46 days.)

We talk of giving up something for Lent: chocolate, alcohol, etc. as a token fast from temptation, but we could also treat this period as a time to prepare ourselves anew, to become changed, reborn, like the spring flowers pushing up through the soil, looking for light, which along with sunshine and rain, will fuel their growth and life cycle as they provide our delight in their beauty, and food for pollinators, before they return to the earth restored, to wait for the cycle to be repeated next year.

Similarly, we could explore a new skill or hobby, investigate a new walk, try a new recipe, sing a new song, cultivate a period of prayer or meditation, making time to rest and recuperate as we are refreshed for the year ahead, and in so doing, encounter God in a different way.

During this time, we celebrate Mothering Sunday on 10th March, when we remember and give thanks, not just for mothers, but for all those who have provided nurture during our lives. It is a joyous occasion at St John's, when we distribute daffodil posies, and hopefully partake of some Simnel cake after the service!

Returning to our Lenten theme, let us not view this time as a dismal and gloomy journey, full of self-deprivation, important though that is, but rather as a time of exploration and growth when we can find new life, a new colour, new enthusiasm for all that Christ can offer, as we journey with Him towards His triumphant and eternal resurrection on Easter Day.

*Shout for joy to the Lord, all the earth,
Worship the Lord with gladness,
Come before him with joyful songs. Psalm 100*

With every blessing and a prayer that you may find God is near during Lent.
Hilary Dilnot, organist at St John's.

Hurst Green Tennis Club

have been able to offer free junior tennis lessons to children in Hurst Green as part of the LTA Youth Start Programme, free to local families. Initially this is for Years 1 - 3 but they hope to offer the Programme to other age groups later in the year. You can read more about the Programme that has been supported by Tandridge District Council at www.lta.org.uk/play/parents-area/start/

The Programme has already started but if you would be interested in future sessions please email hurstgreentc@gmail.com, or call Patrick on 07791 841 270.

Learn for fun, develop an interest, meet new friends, listen to interesting speakers, join outings and events, make best use of your spare time!! The U3A is a charity, run by volunteers. Membership is just £20 per year (£35 per couple). We welcome you to join us on the first Wednesday of the month for coffee and chat at 10.30am and on the second Thursday of the month at our Open Meeting at 2pm both at Westerham Village Hall. We charge a nominal £2 per head for events to cover the cost of hiring the hall. There are lots of interest groups you can join from Archaeology to Yoga, full details of which are on our website: www.westerhamU3A.org, or call 01883 723207 for further information.

On March 14, Ian Currie will be talking to us about Gales, Greenhouses and Global Warming which promises to be appropriate for our present climate! Ian is a Fellow of the Royal Meteorological Society and can be heard regularly on BBC Radio Surrey and Sussex with forecasts for gardeners and growers, and for 18 years was a columnist for the national magazine Garden News. Stuart Robinson will be with us on April 11 to talk about Curiosities of the City of London, and on May 9, Ray Hale will be talking about the man who lived in Darwin's shadow – Alfred Russel Wallace – who lived at the same time as Darwin and arrived at the Theory of Evolution independently, but his importance is now forgotten. Sarah Slater will make a welcome return after her talk on the scandals of the Royal Court and will doubtless have amusing information about Kirtles, Corsets and Curtains on June 13. We also have two trips to invite you to join - a coach trip to Wales in April – contact garyaz100@gmail.com and a visit to Brighton in May with an optional visit to the Pavilion – contact pabrook1@gmail.com. There is plenty to look forward to and we shall be delighted if you can join us.

Take two exotically-clad Wassail masters, a princess for the day, candle-lit drummers, and one of Limpsfield's stranger experiences was ready to start. And although the destination was the Limpsfield Community Orchard, Hurst Green folks were at the heart of the events, behind the scenes and others centre stage. Shortly after dark, on Sunday 14 January, an excited crowd of about 200 gathered for initial refreshments in the Limpsfield Royal British Legion premises. A dozen members of the North Downs Drummers led the torch-lit procession across the Chart golf course, through the lantern-hung wood towards the distant bonfire. There we gathered for the ceremony around the splendid King tree, a noble Bramley cooking apple, festooned with bunting and coloured lights.

Wassail is a curious tradition that is intended to banish evil spirits and ensure a fruitful harvest in the coming autumn season. It was certainly conducted with great gusto in the Limpsfield Community Orchard. Our two local Wassail Masters, Stephen Rapoport and James Reeves who live in Hurst Green, led the proceedings. The Wassail Princess poured the libation in a beautifully turned wooden bowl at the root of the tree, while James and Stephen placed toast, salt and cider in the boughs, and bade the trees bear well and with fecundity. The assembled throng sang lustily, and with the aid of some vigorous drumming, a suitably raucous din was made on whistles, saucepans and sticks to frighten away any lurking ne'er-do-well spirits. Stephen said, Wassail is essentially an opportunity for the community to celebrate and connect with Mother Earth, and to give thanks to nature for all the bounty that it offers us. When hearty cheers had been given, mulled cider and apple juice were provided for all the visitors, young and old alike, while the drummers continued their rousing entertainment. Thanks are due, in particular, to Carole Stent for her indefatigable organisation, and to photographer, Bob Matthews, both of whom have strong Hurst Green ties. And the enthusiastic team which tends the orchard all year round also contains Hurst Green residents. If you haven't been to the event previously, why not put a date in your diary now for the January 2025 Wassail? And before then, do pay a visit to the Community Orchard which is best accessed on the signed footpath winding through the ancient woodland off Grub Street. Limpsfield Community Orchard's funding comes mainly from the annual £10 donation given by the Friends of the Orchard. It is run entirely by volunteers and more are always welcome – visit <http://orchardlimpsfield.blogspot.co.uk>. That will have details of forthcoming events which include the glorious blossom viewing in the spring, as well as a public tasting session in the autumn. Robin Masefield

A night of Honky Tonk, Country & Rock 'n' Roll

An evening of barnstorming, country style rock 'n' roll is coming to the Hurst Green Community Centre this April, as The Oxted Sessions welcomes Sara Petite from San Diego, California.

After a triumphant tour of the UK last summer – which included a headline slot at Maverick Festival in Suffolk – Sara returns to British shores this spring to play a string of full band shows. A winner of three San Diego Music Awards, Glide Magazine says of Sara: "She can get you to dance while delivering lyrics that reach right into your soul".

Support comes from Wyatt Riot (aka former Oxted resident Steve Gamble) whose sound is influenced by early Americana, such as Hank Williams, Johnny Cash and Woody Guthrie.

Sara Petite and her band, with support from Wyatt Riot, are at the Hurst Green Community Centre on Friday 5th April.

Tickets – priced at £15 in advance (£18 on the door) – are available from wegottickets.com/oxtedsessions.

The Oxted Sessions is a series of live music events, featuring artists from around the world. Please search for 'The Oxted Sessions' on Facebook, Twitter or Instagram to stay up to date with all upcoming events.
